ABOUT

An eco-friendly bamboo bottle company nestled in the heart of Assam. Crafted with precision and care, our bottles are made from natural bamboo, showcasing the rich biodiversity of the region. Embracing sustainability, we take pride in offering chemical-free alternatives that not only quench your thirst but also contribute to a greener planet.

COLOURS

Our bamboo bottle brand radiates elegance with the primary hue of creamish bamboo tone. This calming color not only reflects the authenticity of the bamboo material but also resonates with the earthy essence of Assam.

Complemented by the soothing secondary shade of our green packaging embodies the lush landscapes of the region, symbolizing our commitment to sustainable practices. Together, these colors seamlessly blend into a harmonious visual identity, inviting you to embrace a lifestyle that harmonizes with nature.
